

Jaycees' Mardi Gras auction will benefit Jeanine Nicarico Memorial Fund for Literacy

Revelers who attend the Naperville Jaycees' annual Mardi Gras party slated for 6-11PM, Fri., Feb. 9, at the Judd Kendal VFW will be tossing purple, gold and green beads for a good cause.

This year's event silent auction proceeds will benefit the Jeanine Nicarico Memorial Fund for Literacy whose goal is to provide enriched literacy opportunities for learners within the Naperville Community.

Heaven on Seven, a New Orleans-style restaurant in downtown Naperville, will serve up a hot and sassy menu and there will be authentic New Orleans music for dancing.

There are several ways to get involved; including sponsoring this fun-filled evening or making a donation to the silent auction. So whether you want to sponsor this event or just come on out and enjoy a fun evening please visit our website at www.naperjaycees.org or call us at 961-9375.
